Judicial Officer

To the Person in 1:

- The court cannot make the restraining orders after the court hearing unless the person in ② has been personally given (served) a copy of your request and any temporary orders. To show that the person in ② has been served, the person who served the forms must fill out a proof of service form. Form CH-200, Proof of Personal Service, may be used.
- For information about service, read Form CH-200-INFO, What Is “Proof of Personal Service”?
- If you are unable to serve the person in ② in time, you may ask for more time to serve the documents. Use Form CH-115, Request to Continue Court Hearing and to Reissue Temporary Restraining Order.

To the Person in 2:

- If you want to respond to the request for orders in writing, file Form CH-120, Response to Request for Civil Harassment Restraining Orders, and have someone age 18 or older—not you or anyone to be protected—mail it to the person in ①.
- The person who mailed the form must fill out a proof of service form. Form CH-250, Proof of Service of Response by Mail, may be used. File the completed form with the court before the hearing and bring a copy with you to the court hearing.
- Whether or not you respond in writing, go to the hearing if you want the judge to hear from you before making an order. You may tell the judge why you agree or disagree with the orders requested.
- You may bring witnesses and other evidence.
- At the hearing, the judge may make restraining orders against you that could last up to five years and may order you to turn in to law enforcement, or sell to or store with a licensed gun dealer, any firearms that you own or possess.
